

RULES & REGULATIONS

ALL RULES ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE AT ANY TIME WITHOUT NOTICE!

Listed below are rules and regulations for popular locations. Please read carefully ± some of these may influence your decision in choosing a site. A PERMIT IS NOT A RESERVATION. The sites are first come, first serve so a person must be sent out early to hold the location. However, we cannot guarantee the exact placement of your picnic on the site selected.

MISSION BAY

The following are the Mission Bay regulations, as of July 1, 2022. These policies and fees could change at any time.

1. For Mission Bay Parks, permits are available on a first-come-first-serve basis. All permit fees must be paid at the time of application.
2. Currently, alcohol is not permitted at any Mission Bay Parks, and Shoreline Parks.
3. Permits are required for any group of 50 or more persons for which attendance is limited to individuals exclusively invited to the event. Fees are non transferable. Service Charge for Changes to Approved Permits $50.00/per change (Changes need to be done 15 days prior to the event)
4. Refunds may be obtained 60 or more days prior to your event, minus a cancellation fee.
5. Permit cost for 50-300 people is $196.73. not including hourly fees. For groups over 301-1,000 people the cost is $785.89, again not including hourly fees.
6. As of July 1st 2022, all city of San Diego parks will be charging an hourly usage fee of $15.45 per hour. Including set up and tear down of event.
7. A permit is not required for groups under 50 persons unless you have a moonbounce, seating, or if you have any combination of two pieces of equipment. Please be sure to mark the request box on the front page if you anticipate having any of these items. (Moonbounces are not permitted at Kellogg Park and La Jolla Cove). These fees are non-refundable and non-transferable. Any revisions to a permit will require the $50.00 to be paid again, plus the equipment charge.
8. Picnic People requires a dumpster for permits for over 50 people depending upon location and day of week.
9. Gazebos are reservable at a rate of $30/hour in most parks.
10. Only 2 volleyball sets are allowed per area. (No volleyball is allowed at Kellogg Park).
11. Amplified music is only allowed with a Special Events permit and is subject to approval by the Mission Bay Park Committee. Voice amplification for announcements only must be approved in all areas.
12. No animals or glass containers are allowed at Mission Bay.
13. Picnic People will not be on-site early than 4 am.
14. Balloons are not allowed.

PARK LOCATIONS ARE NOW TAKING RESERVATIONS, SO PLEASE FILL OUT THIS FORM AND EMAIL IT BACK TO US AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. THANK YOU!

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION

Some locations, such as Poway Lakes, do not book sales further out than 90 days, and in some cases, will not rent sites to non-resident groups more than 30 days in advance. If you have chosen a site for which you need additional information, please let us know.

Please understand that these rules and fees are subject to change at any given moment. Picnic People cannot guarantee that any rules or fees will remain the same. By utilizing this service, you are not obligated to use Picnic People but you are obligated to pay any fees incurred on your behalf.

We will require payment and a signed Permit Agreement prior to obtaining a permit. This form does not guarantee your space. It only allows Picnic People to apply for the location. You will receive information advising you that your site/sites of choice are available. You will receive written confirmation advising you that your site has been secured. This permit securing service is at no charge to you.

I have read and understand the above rules and regulations.
